Indicated for arthrosis, arthritis, rheumatism, myositis, neuralgia and neuritis (sciatica), professional cramps, uricemia, gout, after-effects of fractures, sprains, dislocations, contusions, post-operative adhesions, after-effects of phlebitis, cellulitis, after-effects of adnexitis (non-tuberculous), rhinitis, sinusitis, pharyngitis, laryngitis, and chronic bronchial catarrh.

European Patent no. 1571203 guarantees and safeguards the presence of numerous active principles in the thermal mud, produced naturally during the maturation process when this is correctly regulated. Scientific research by the patent owner, the Centro Studi Termali Pietro d'Abano, has enabled the identification and proven the efficacy of these principles in the treatment of chronic and degenerative inflammatory pathologies, in particular of osteo-articular origin.
